“ Dear, Mullinax family. I am very sorry to hear of Doug's passing. He was a good man, and Crystal Rain Studios being the first experience my band had in a recording studio, will forever have a special place in my heart.

My first experience at Crystal Rain was when I was 15 years old, and it stuck with me to the point that I moved to Seattle when I was 23 to attend the Art Institute for audio and video production. I'm now 45, and moving back to my hometown in SC, and will be establishing a recording studio in my home just as he did. While packing for my move, I found a Crystal Rain invoice from March 26, 1999, which is what led me here.

God speed, Doug, you're forever part of the best time of my youth and influence my adult life as well.

“ On the death of the Beloved
by John O'Donohue

*Though we need to weep your loss,
You dwell in that safe place in our hearts,
Where no storm or might or pain can reach you.*

*Your love was like the dawn
Brightening over our lives
Awakening beneath the dark
A further adventure of colour.*

*The sound of your voice
Found for us
A new music
That brightened everything.*

*Whatever you enfolded in your gaze
Quickened in the joy of its being;
You placed smiles like flowers
On the altar of the heart.
Your mind always sparkled
With wonder at things.*

*Though your days here were brief,
Your spirit was live, awake, complete.*

*We look towards each other no longer
From the old distance of our names;
Now you dwell inside the rhythm of breath,
As close to us as we are to ourselves.*

*Though we cannot see you with outward eyes,
We know our soul's gaze is upon your face,
Smiling back at us from within everything*

To which we bring our best refinement.

*Let us not look for you only in memory,
Where we would grow lonely without you.
You would want us to find you in presence,
Beside us when beauty brightens,
When kindness glows
And music echoes eternal tones.*

*When orchids brighten the earth,
Darkest winter has turned to spring;
May this dark grief flower with hope
In every heart that loves you.*

May you continue to inspire us:

*To enter each day with a generous heart.
To serve the call of courage and love
Until we see your beautiful face again
In that land where there is no more separation,
Where all tears will be wiped from our mind,
And where we will never lose you again.*

“ *Robin,
I have many good memories of Doug when you worked at Under the Rainbow. I know that everyone will miss him. He was always friendly and always had a good word for me when I saw him. He will be missed here, but Heaven has gained a wonderful man and friend. My love and prayers are with you Robin and Eric. Love,
