“ Vern and Evelyn did not have the pleasure of knowing this man, but we know David and Martha, who are wonderful people. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family with apologies that we are unable to attend the funeral. God bless each of you.

“ I will never forget my friend and pastor Doug and all his family. Praising God together from the pulpit and taking this Presbyterian and Baptizing him. What a joy that was. From the charlie horse he gave me so I would bend my knees to directing the choir with Una and Terri singing in the choir to him saying only after he was grown that his moms favorite piece of chicken was not the neck! O what great memories . I look forward to seeing him again when I get to heaven. Praise the Lord . We will miss you . All my love to all the family . Joey Timms
