“ Today I will celebrate the life and home going of my beautiful brother w.c. Lance.
I will miss his hugs and complements every time I saw him. He was such a loving Person all of his life.even as a child he was so tender hearted.
When he and Sandra married he had truly found the love of life. His love for her
And his children Beverly and Ray was very apparent every time I saw him , his Family was all he talked about. Then came the precious Grandchildren and great Grandchild.
I loved to sing with Dub, I have fond memories of our get togethers when we would Sing and he played the guitar. On Sunday, when we were young we would just Get together with my mon and day and sing. I can still hear the music in my head.
Today I am sure he is singing with the Angels. I will sing with him again in Heaven.

Rest in Peace little brother love you!

“ One of my fondest memories of Uncle Dub was when I was younger and he lived with us in Ohio, he was always aggravating mom every chance he got. One day when she was washing clothes he found a snake and put it in her rinse water, she chased him all over the yard with a knife. Memories like that is what made him so special, he will be missed deeply. It seems like god is calling all his angels to be with him, some day we will see them again. Love you Sandra, Beverly, and Ray you are in my prayers Jimmy Lance
