“ Duke , my lil DUKESTER , I love you so much! You brighten up my darkest days with your big bright smile and you could light up a whole football field with it ! And your laugh we could stop laughing when we got started you laughing at me laughing at you ! And we would be in the car just singing to all the songs and cuttin up a Strom . Yes my days are going to be so dark without you here and I miss you so much already but I know I will see you and you sisters again and we all can be laughing and singing all to together ! I love you ALL !!!!!

“ I will never forget his smile and his laugh. I was leaning over him trying to pull his cover up to his chest and when I did he tried to bite my boob, and I said Duke that's bad he started laughing so hard. He knew exactly what he was doing LOL. That was a rough time for me, but Duke always made me smile. The Lord made Duke perfectly to fit right there with him in Heaven but loaned his Angel to us to show us what our hearts could be so perfectly happy, but he was ready for him to come home. I'll never forget you sweetie see you at the pearly gate. Love you

“ I'm so sorry for your loss . Duke was a wonderful person I so enjoyed having him on my school bus . When I picked him up from his dad he made my day . He had the most beautiful laugh. He made all the other children laugh . He touched my life and many others . My prayers are with you

“ DUKERS, you were always the one I could count on for a GREAT CONTAGIOUS SMILE, especially when I walked into the room or spoke to you. You were one of my best patients in therapy. You really tried hard even if you couldn't do it. I remember you and the electric wheelchair, you got a little to gig for your pants and we had to stop you because you showed out. I LOVE YOU will MISS YOU FOREVER!!!! Great Aunt, Lynn.
