“What a blessing to have had Ed to be part of my life. I will so miss picking up the phone and hearing “Hey little girl!” No matter what had happened that day those words would always bring a smile to my face. Both Ed and Doris have been like a second set of parents to me. And Tammy has always had a chuck of my heart since the first time as a baby she was dropped into my arms. I was proud to be called the “daughter” visiting from Texas. Right now all who loved him are missing his contagious laughter, thumbs up gesture when it was something good and genuine love he shared with so many. I know heaven must be filled with the smell of fresh baked bread. When I see him again, I hope he is at the gates of heaven waiting to greet me with a dry macaroni pie. Sending my love and prayers to all of the family. 2 Corinthians 5:1-8

I was very sad to learn of the passing of Ed. I have many memories of the times we worked together at Stevens. He was a respected friend and great co-worker. You are in my thoughts and I pray the Lord will be with you at this difficult time.
