“ Otis & Edith and my parents were friends for many years. I have many fond memories of them visiting our home. Edith and Daddy would both often talk about Georgia being a wonderful place to live. I would like to think those conversations helped us decide to move to Georgia 35 years ago. Otis & Edith are both missed.

“ Aunt Edith was my mother Evelyn's sister. Praise the Lord for Martin & Lucy Mims whose children from Lincolnnton, Ga gave the foundations for so many wonderful families! Aunt Edith was always sharing memories and the strength that the good Lord gave her over the years. We all are so blessed to be part of the journey and the family reunions where eyes sparkled with past and present and the extra lbs. gained from the wonderful loving cooks. Thank you Aunt Edith for sharing with us!
