

Edna Campbell Bollinger

December 31, 1933 - February 3, 2026

Edna Louise Campbell Bollinger, 92, of Travelers Rest, passed away Tuesday, February 3rd, 2026, at Easley Baptist Hospital.

Born in the town of Ninety-Six, South Carolina, she was the daughter and fourth child of eight children of the late Odie Campbell and Grace McNeill Campbell Cureton. She was a loving wife and devoted mother and of the Baptist faith. As a young girl she aided her mother in the care of her younger siblings, nieces and nephews while her father was away in the army during WWII. She stayed committed to her siblings her entire life. At eighteen she married Charles William (CW) Bollinger and started her own family. She worked in the textile industry retiring from Asten-Johnson. She was a talented seamstress and created beautiful quilts. She loved tending her plants and numerous cats, dogs, rabbits, and other creatures her boys and CW delivered to the house. She was the original “boy mom” and had three counting CW. She provided kind words and gentle hugs abundantly or a firm correction and proper “dressing down” if the situation required. She could wield a red plastic belt like a ninja warrior that strikes fear in the hearts of those that come to know it to this day. She was quite the lady.

Along with her parents she was predeceased by her husband of 58 years, Charles (CW) Bollinger, brothers, Milton Neal Campbell, Walter Campbell, John Carroll Campbell, Raymond Campbell, and Daniel Paul Campbell, Sisters, Dorothy Campbell Johnson, and Barbara Campbell Hunt.

She is survived by sons: Randy Bollinger (Beth), Rodger Bollinger (Lisa); grandchildren: Cory R. Bollinger (Kassandra), Jeremy G. Bollinger (Angela), Ashley G. Bollinger Timpanaro (Dan), Karlie Michele Bollinger Wrennall (Alex), and Charles Stephen Bollinger; five great-grandchildren; Cody, Connor, Jack, James, Luka, and numerous nieces and nephews.

The family will receive friends Monday, February 9th, 2026, from 12:45pm until 1:45pm at The Howze Mortuary with burial to follow at 3pm at the Greenville Memorial Gardens.

The family will be at their respective homes.

“ My heart is broken to know Edna has gained her wings. She was a second mother to me and I cherish the recent times we were able to talk in the yard. Please know she was well loved and my family is praying for you all during this time.
