“ Lib was a shining light here at the food pantry. Her connection to our clients was wonderful--she understood the difficulties our clients are facing and was very sympathetic to the problems so many people are facing now. She was truly a person who loved her fellow neighbors in need and was always willing to help. She will be missed.

“ Lib and I became best friends when we both worked at WTND Radio in the '70s. Even after she and Dave moved, my wife and I stayed in touch. Lib's good heart and compassion, along with her outgoing personality, endeared her to many people.

She will always be my "little sister", and she'll be missed.

“ Dave.

We will all miss Lib. I cherish the time we worked together at WTND radio in Orangeburg. I'm so glad Ed Allen organized the reunion of former employees in Columbia a couple of years ago and we got to see you then.

*Wow, I'm STUNNED to hear of Lib's passing -- I worked with her at WTND for 2 years & she was so positive/encouraging -- just a real joy to be around. I'll never forget the snowstorm where Ed and I stayed at Lib/Dave's house & watched "Marathon Man."
Great time!*
