To my dear Elizabeth—the woman who taught me that the morning belongs to the Lord. I will never forget the sound of the bus pulling up at 6:00 a.m. and the warmth of her voice telling me about Jesus. She was a constant, a rock, and a beautiful witness in my life. She invited me into the Kingdom long before I knew how much I would need it. I know she is now experiencing the fullness of the glory she shared with me. She has finished her journey and is now embraced by the arms of the Father.

I agree with you. She sure loved the Lord and made sure no matter what he would forgive you and you could still walk with him. An angel on earth she was. My Beautiful Aunt Lizzie. I used to go to G.A's with her and spent the night with her when she lived in River Falls. Tammy and I had a wonderful time together. Sometimes I would walk down to the river. Such simple things yet wonderful memories . Will be missed by so many. She used to bring Junior a homemade pnut butter cake on his birthday. I will miss her so much The last time I talked to her was last year Christmas time at Walmart and she was talking about Jack being gone. Now she's gone HOME TO BE WITH THE LORD. My BEAUTIFUL AUNT LIZZIE. (Dianne E.T. Caldwell)

“ My friend has left us briefly, I know I will see her soon. I have never known a better person and friend. She has dedicated her life to serving the Lord first and foremost. She has carried numerous children to church, she always let anyone know in a very caring way the error of their ways. Never have I ever heard this woman speak bad of anyone. Friends like Liz are once in a lifetime, she has been a very hard working woman who opened her heart and her home all the while caring for family and friends. She has stepped up to a well deserved rest, what a joyous thing to have stepped into the arms of one's mother on Mother's Day. Rest my blessed friend, I love you. Prayers for the family.
