“ Ella had many, many friends, and touched twice as many hearts with her generosity and love for people. Quick to listen, first to help...she was my best friend, responding to any suggestion for a hand with a project, or a fun girlfriend time away from our routines, always ending up at DD for our favorite coffees. We could be found riding around in her truck, laughing at most anything and solving the world's problems in between aisles in Hobby Lobby, enjoying the day's pleasantries and our shared belief in Christ.

Now, while I struggle with the reality she's gone, I'm comforted in the knowledge she's with our sovereign God and safe forever more.
