“ I have never met a kinder person in my life as Elton. He was always eager to help everyone, even strangers. He would try to lift your spirits if you were feeling down. He loved his family and would have his chili cook out just to bring them all together. And he invited all the neighbors too. He loved people. He loved to work on cars, trucks, anything that had a motor on it. And when he had his job, it was more like a hobble to him, than work. I'll miss you Elton Clark! Knowing you, you are up there in Heaven trying to give the Angels the shirt off you back....##imported-begin##DEBRA BARKER##imported-end##
