“ I never got to say goodbye in person, but I love you and will miss you forever. "See you soon baboon" as we'd joke with one another. Rest easy

“ Christine you were such a sweet woman. I loved coming to visit you and talking about my grandma and my son. We would talk about your little Emma coming to visit, how the food at Stroud's wasn't cooked how you would cook it, or how you were the boss around there. You liked how Jimmy would bring you food or the gifts you got from me and my church. You loved having visitors. You would ask me how my dad and uncle were doing. I am going to miss you, you were like my own grandma after she died. I am so glad to have known you and now you are with your husbands, son, and my grandma. RIP Christine I love you.

“ I lost another family member yesterday. Stepmother to Joyce Ann (Payne) Hill, my wife who passed a year ago. Joyce said that Christine was the closest to being her birth mother. I have known Christine for 25 years and will always remember her kind words, honesty and knowledge she shared with everyone. The Lord has taken you to a better place. RIP Christine.
