“ Dear Linda and Family,
I just received word yesterday that you have lost one of your beloved daughters. Know that my thoughts are prayers are with you. As a mother, one can understand how deep their footprints are in our hearts. Our first friends also leave footprints as well, and you and I go back over 45 years. Know that I feel your sadness and pray that in the coming days that God will give you peace and strength.##imported-begin##Sharon (Fisk) Willey##imported-end##

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to all who survive Erin. As for Erin, we also pray and take refuge and relief knowing she is with God's favorite Angel, Bonnie. We have many unanswered questions about her untimely death, but soon the answers will come to us, as they have with me when Bonnie passed. May God bless Erin and all of you.

“ I haven't seen my cousin Erin in a few years but I always have had fond memories of her from when I would go visit Holyoke or when she came down to Orlando. She helped me with problems that I was having and I will never forget how sweet and caring she was. I wish I could go to the service but I am in college and I don't really have a way to get there. I am sending flowers though.
Erin, I know that you are somewhere watching over your family and the rest of the Hennessey family and that everything is good now. I love and miss you very much.
Love always,

“ There are no spoken words that can ease your pain and loss at this time! For as much as I feel the sudden flow of tears, and the memories that make me smile and even laugh. The world has lost so much! And for those closest to her, your Most Powerful Angel is the one you'll miss the most here on earth. Please know that my thoughts are with you all. Erin, was so strong and a force to be reckoned with when it came to her loved ones. So let that be fair warning to any who would dare to tread on her loved ones!
