“ I remember Esther like yesterday, coming by my house in her truck camper having been on a camping trip. Just showed up out of the blue.. LOL She was not afraid to do anything, that is how I saw her as she lived out her life. Such a fun person, she loved my daughter Selena, and they got along great and talked often in the early days. We loved her very much. Great memories to be held dear to our hearts, going down to the "old house", playing and riding bikes. She was like a kid herself. She will be missed. Prayers for all. All my love to Jimmy, Gwendolyn and kids.
