“ Dear Hargrove family,
I was saddened to hear of your recent loss. My heartfelt sympathy is with the family during this difficult time.

Losing a loved one is one of the most traumatic things we will ever experience. Death spares no one. We feel so helpless because we are unable to alter the situation. King David of ancient Israel experienced such anguish when his son Absalom died. (2 Samuel 18:33). There is someone who can remedy the situation, Almighty God can.

In his word the Bible at John 5:28-29, we are promised that those who are in Gods memory will be resurrected. Just think of what that means. One day soon we will have the prospect of being reunited with our dear loved ones again. We will be able to touch them, hug them, kiss them, laugh with them again. Isn't this a wonderful prospect?

When Jesus was on the earth, he showed that he has the power to bring the dead back to life. On one occasion, he resurrected his friend Lazarus. (John 11:11-44). On another occasion he resurrected a 12 year old girl. (Luke 8:49-56).

We can be confident that God and his son Jesus will do the same for our dead loved ones. So please read God's word the Bible daily and meditate on his promises for the future.

In your spare time please read: Revelation 21:3-4, Acts 24:15, Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19.

Sincerely,

Sandra##imported-begin##Sandra##imported-end##

“ I am sorry for your loss. Aunt Ethel was such a sweet woman. I had not seen her in many years. As a child, I remember her and Uncle Fred coming to see Granny Pruitt (Essie - Uncle Fred's sister) and they were always so nice. I also remember visiting them at their house. I joined the military and left Greenville in 1983, so I have not stayed in touch with the family as much, especially since my mother (Pauline) died 10 years. Aunt Ethel was one of the sweetest women, and much like my mother, she will spend eternity in a wonderful place. I always say that if I could be half the woman that my mother was, I would be doing well, and I feel the same about Aunt Ethel. May God be with you and bless you during your time of sorrow and loss.##imported-begin##Pamela Hodgens Corbin##imported-end##
