

Frances Louise Pearson Cox

July 5, 1929 - March 15, 2025

Frances Louise Pearson Cox, 95, joyfully joined Jesus in her heavenly home on Saturday, March 15, 2025 at her residence in Travelers Rest, South Carolina, reuniting with her beloved husband, James Rudolph “Rudy” Cox. They shared sixty years of marriage.

Born in Greenville County, she was a daughter of the late Charles Edward and Eva Jane Rhodes Pearson. Frances worked many years in the office at Sun Heating Supplies before retiring. However, her greatest devotion was to her family and her church. A faithful member of New Liberty Baptist Church, she served as organist and church secretary at various times, using her gifts to glorify the Lord.

She leaves behind a loving family, including her three sons: James Rudolph Cox, II (Ginger), Gary Charles Cox (Debbie), and Allen Benjamin Cox; five grandchildren: Kelley Schmidt (Bobby), Michael Cox (Stefanie), Daniel Cox (Garland), David Cox (Katie), and Kristen Dennis (Charlton), as well as Kristen’s mother, Kelley W. Cox; and eight cherished great-grandchildren: Lilia and Finley Schmidt, Chip and Cal Cox, Sullivan and Austin Cox, and Luke and Emily Cox.

Along with her parents and husband, she was predeceased by two brothers: Charles Pearson and Woodrow Pearson; and two sisters: Agnes Bass and Lucille Johnson.

The family will receive friends Thursday evening from 6:00 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. at The Howze Mortuary.

Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m. Friday in The Howze Mortuary Chapel. Burial will follow in Woodlawn Memorial Park.

Memorials may be made to Lottie Moon Christmas Offering in care of New Liberty Baptist Church, 1798 N. Hwy 25, Travelers Rest, SC 29690.
