“ Dillard, Ann, John, Kim and Scott..
I so regret not keeping in touch with Fran after Clemson. We always think there's going to be time. As soon as I heard, I spent a good part of the day going through our yearbooks from St. Angela and reading those silly inscriptions that we left for one another about our bright futures. Fran's star was always high and bright and will be forever so in our hearts.
My deepest sympathy to you all.

“ Dillard, I was heartbroken to hear of Fran's passing over the weekend from Mom and Dad -- they always keep me posted on the "greenville news" but this was one update I did not want to hear. She has always been a blessing to everyone she has come in contact with and I know she will continue in that role as she now continues her journey thru eternal life with God. God gave us love....and the miracle comes from God when we share that love with others. She was a miracle to you, your family, her friends, and all those who came across her path. I can only hope that we continue to spread the miracle of love as a memorial to her. “ Dillard,

I am at a loss of words; I am so sorry that the world has lost Fran. I have never known someone how only saw the best of everyone. We are all better for having had the privilege of knowing her! I know right now that the loss of her is over whelming right now, but hopefully in the near future the joy of her life will overtake the pain. I know that she is in heaven loving her family and friends in every way the good lord will let her.

God bless you and both of your families. I am sorry we will not be there tomorrow, we are traveling. I will be thinking of you and praying for you all.

“ Dear Dillard, As you know, we loved Fran so much. She was one of the most amazing people I have ever known. Her beauty was so natural and striking. She never knew how beautiful she was because she was so "selfless" always thinking of others. I remember the first time we met the two of you over twenty years ago on the PGA Tour. We became fast friends and Fran treated our young girls as though they were her own. We will never forget how the two of you took them fun places and kept them on the tour on several weekends so Mark and I could go to dinner and have some alone time. The girls will always remember those times as well. Fran never forgot a birthday or Christmas for my girls; always sending something so unique and special. This year on my birthday, a present arrived from Fran..thats Fran, thinking of me when she was fighting for her life. As I was doing my morning bible study I came across an article written by Susan Lenzkes called "FEELING AT HOME" which reminded me of Fran and friendship:

*Certain friends have a way of setting up residence in us.
They march into some barrenroom of our heart and
hang cheery curtains,
scatter soft rugs,
dot the walls with framed prints of
tender and whimsical moments,
then set about building a cozy fire beside two sink-back-and-stay-awhile chairs.
We may not always know exactly when such friends moved in,
but we're so very glad they did!*

Dillard, you and your extended family, your sister, Frans sister Kim and all of the family have made a lasting impression on others with the closeness and courage you have all had during this time of struggle. I know how much she loved you all. You are all in our thoughts and prayers daily during this difficult time. Fran has a special crown in heaven for the Christ-like love she showed others during her short precious life.##imported-begin##Cynthia, Mark ,Lyndsay and Hallie Brooks##imported-end##
