“ Pat and Louise I was so sorry to hear of your Mothers death. We had not seen her at the beauty shop for a very long time because her time had changed. Your families are in my thoughts and prayers. Frances was a very sweet and friendly lady and will be missed by many.

Dear Aunt Frances, you will be missed & the most fondest memories I have of you are eating saltines, smelling of Clate's various tobacco flavors, a long flight of steps at the back door & the fun at Foxwood Hills. Thank You for being a part of my life & a positive role model. You were deeply loved & now you are with your Heavenly Father rejoicing with loved ones. May you be at peace.
