“ Aunt Frankie will always be remembered for her kindness to me. When I was a little girl my Mother was blind. She often came and took me to the Parades. She also gave me & Troy a birthday party. She did many other things also but these are the ones that stands out in my mind. I won't be at the graveside funeral because of hyperbatic chamber is scheduled from 10 to 12. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Blessings to your family are wished. Love, Doris and Woody Stroud
