“ Verse 1

*Where would I be without You
How could I could stand this storm alone
Where would I be without You
Out here on my own
Who would I have to hold me
Who else can make these mountains move
Where would I be
Where would I be without You*

Chorus 1

*I close my eyes
'cause faith is seeing for me
I'm out of breath
But You are breathing for me
I lift my hands, to Jesus be the glory*

Tag

To Jesus be the glory

Verse 2

*Where would I be without You
Facing this fight I'd never choose
Where would I be without You
With nothing left to lose
Who would I have to hold me
Who else can make these mountains move
Where would I be
Where would I be without You
Where would I be
Where would I be without You*

Chorus 2

*I close my eyes
'cause faith is seeing for me
I'm out of breath*

*But You are breathing for me
I lift my hands, to Jesus be the glory
My fight is gone
But You are fighting for me
The battle won
I'm standing on Your victory
I lift my hands, to Jesus be the glory*

*Bridge 1
Write me with your glory, Jesus
Every line Your story, Jesus
Author of my faith*

*Bridge 2
Write me with your glory, Jesus
Every line Your story, Jesus
Author of my faith*

*Bridge 3
Write me with your glory, Jesus
Every line Your story, Jesus
Author of my faith*

“ Fred is a wonderful Christian gentleman and we will miss him greatly at Latigo Cowboy Church. He always be part of our church family and God has gained another angel warrior to dwell with Him for eternity. Our condolences go out to his family and friends. He was a wonderful grandfather who provided a Christian atmosphere for his loving grandchildren. Happy Trails Fred until we meet again.

“ I was sad to hear that Fred had passed away. I spent many hours with Fred and Rick Singleton when we were young. I have a lot of fun memories. We got older and shared several years together as Deacons at Lima Baptist church. He loved the lord and did not mind sharing his faith. I will miss him but will see him in Glory. I will pray for the family.
