

Gladys Allen Cashwell

October 10, 1931 - March 23, 2025

Gladys Allen Cashwell, 93, wife of the late Harry Taft Cashwell and formerly of Pigeon Forge, TN, passed peacefully into heaven on March 23, 2025. Born to the late Rev. H. Clyde Allen and Mamie Bowers Allen in Greenville County, SC.

She is survived by 3 daughters: Ms. Dianne Hodge of Tigerville, SC, Mrs. Cheryl (Robby) Medlin of Easley, SC, and Ms. Vicki R. Moon of Sevierville, TN; 8 grandchildren: Angela (Scotty) Simpson, Kimberly (Robby) Wood, Shane (Dana) Youngblood, Marina (Nando) Ortiz, Dawn (Jesse) Livingston, Kristina Lewis, Brad (Nikki) Jennings, and Robert (Tasha) Medlin; 15 great-grandchildren and 11 great-great-grandchildren.

Prior to her illness, she was an active member of Freedom Baptist Church in Pigeon Forge, where she sang in the choir and often played the piano and sang solo. She was an active Red Cross member where she served in the health clinic at Pigeon Forge Primary School and was filmed in several Red Cross public service announcements.

Gladys was pre-deceased by a daughter, Sandra M. Youngblood and a son, David Ray Moon, Jr. along with her first husband, David Ray Moon, Sr.

Due to cemetery constraints the graveside service has been moved to

Thursday morning, March 27, 2025, at 11:00 am at Mountain View Memorial Park in Travelers Rest, SC.

The family wishes to thank the staff at The Oaks at Chanticleer who became our extended family along with Interim Healthcare Hospice for their care and compassion.

“ I am so sorry for your loss . I never had the privilege of meeting you or your mom . We are actually related to you-perhaps 3rd cousins . My dad was William Allen , son of James Allen and Minnie Allen . I actually met Rev. Clyde Allen at my grandfather's house in Flat Rock when I was a young girl . I live in Inman ,SC . My sympathy goes to you and your family . God bless you and give you comfort . Love ,Shirley Allen Millwood
