“ I knew Mrs Styles from across the street where I lived with my mother, Blanche Styles Varn back in the 1960s before graduating from high school. I probably pestered Gladys and her husband William many times, to borrow their ladder to clean our gutters. But if I did, Gladys certainly never showed it. She was always sooo kind. I was sooo very saddened to hear of her passing but also heartened to know she had a long and wonderful life and is now in Heaven. God Bless her and William in Heaven and Pat and Sheila here on Earth. For Sheila and Pat: I very deeply regret that I did not attend your mother's service and funeral. But my prayers and heart are with you!!!!

“ I never met Mrs. Styles, but I know she was an outstanding mother because I know her daughters are good persons. They are to be commended for following her example. Mrs. Styles has been cared for in such a loving way. She is a beautiful lady. My love to Pat and Shelia. And the grandchildren, great grands who will miss out on hearing her voice of reason.
