“ When I contemplated how to write these words nothing came to mind. After all, how can I convey what I’m feeling when the words simply do not exist? “A beautiful life” doesn’t come close. “The best mom a kid could ask for” doesn’t even scratch the surface. The past tense tears a hole in me. On Sunday she left this earth after a 5 year battle with Parkinson’s disease and took a piece of me with her. But I believe that what she left behind with me is far greater. Her sense of adventure. Her artistic proficiency. Her tack-sharp sense of humor. But most of all a love that knows no bounds, that transcends the confines of this earthly realm. I’ll carry it with me for the rest of my life. I’ll wear it like a badge of honor. Until I see you again, I look forward to spending more time with you, Mom. I’ll be looking for you. In your favorite songs. In the books and movies we bonded over. In the rays of sunlight that warm my skin. In the mountains. In the ocean that washed away your troubles. I know that you’ll never be far. Your DNA is knitted into me. Your wisdom is the fabric of my heart and mind. Your memory is alive and well in me, and so then are you. I’m beyond blessed to have been a part of your story. But just because you’re gone doesn’t mean your story ends. I’m just picking up where you left off. I plan on making you proud. When we see each other again we’ll have a lot of catching up to do, and you better believe I’m going to make it a story worth telling. I love you.

“ It’s hard for me to believe that my sweet sweet Grammy is actually gone. I miss her so much. My favorite story she told me was when I was younger. She said that she would literally carry me every where, and she did lol! She said she started to realize that she needed to stop carrying me when one day we went to pick up my Uncle Dylan from school and my feet were dragging on the ground as she was carrying me up to the door. I’ll forever love this women and the impact she had on my life. Rest easy Grammy, until I see you again 💕💕

“ My love for my precious half-sister Glenda was sweet. She was always smiling and loving to me. I'm so glad I got to see her again recently and share some love with her for a little while. Even though we didn't share much of life together growing up I loved her always. I know that she and our daddy are now having a sweet time together in heaven rejoicing now with no more pain. My love and sympathy for all the family. ❤️

“ Dear Alvin and all Family and Friends, we are praying for you all. Glenda touched so many lives. There are not enough words to express how much Glenda is loved. She is no longer suffering but is with Jesus, walking on Streets of Gold, and in a New, Perfect Body. Glenda always had such a warm smile and loved everyone. She was always concerned with other people. Glenda was an exemplary wife, mother, aunt, and friend. There are not enough words to convey how much we loved her. She always had a positive outlook on life. She missed being able to go to church, and being with family.. May God provide your every need including grace, peace, comfort, love and discernment. I cherish all if the memories and her sweet smile. She was such a gracious Southern Lady. If there is someone, either a Friend or Family Member, who is not saved, may this be the time that someone will repent of their sins and accepts Jesus as their Lord and Savior. Remember the special times shared with Glenda. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

Love and prayers,

“ My Aunt Glenda will always be remembered. So many memories. Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas at her house. Along with all the beach trips she took us on when we was little. We all have always been a very close family. The kids absolutely loved going to visit her. I have always looked up to her. Such a beautiful, intelligent and caring woman. A leader and follower of Christ. Forever in our hearts.
