“ To all the Miller family, Kathy and I express our love and sympathy to you all. Brother Grady was one of two men who spoke into my life as I launched into ministry. He was always a strong encourager to me when occasions rose that we were together. I will never forget the day he came to Indian Trail to reflect on the good old days. As he left I will never forget the gleam in his eyes as he said, "the Lord sure has blessed you."

He has blessed me and having Grady Miller as a mentor and friend was truly one of those blessings. God bless and bring peace to you all.

“ My husband and I started at Friendship just as he was retiring. However my son had been attending since he was about 6, so I had met him on occasion. He was always so kind. I loved to hear his stories and to hear him give The Word. Prayers for peace and comfort the family~Brian, Rhonda and Aj Donnels
