“ Delores, Mike, Matt and Mark,

I just heard of the passing away of Harold. I'm so sorry! Had I have known sooner I would have made every effort to contact you sooner.

Please accept my sincere sympathy! You are like family to me, and I have thought of you often.

I'm so sorry! But I am sure that Harold is with my parents and other friends from Slater Church of God, and we will see them soon.

I will pray for you!

“ Matt and Mark,

I am truly sorry to read of your father's passing. I lost my father in 1986 and I know that the father son relationship is often complicated and special. As we are all fathers now I think we see that it is one of the hardest things we will ever undertake. I wish you both and your families good memories, love of each other, and the comfort of knowing that your dad is at peace.

“ Mark, Mike, Matt and Mrs. Moody. I am very sorry to hear about your loss. My Father was on same floor with Mr. Moody in August at St. Francis and I would stop by and see how he was doing. “ Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family. Mike, Mark & Matt this will change your life forever. Take it from someone who knows how it feels to loose my father in 2002 at just thirty one years of age. Be glad you have spouse's and children of your OWN to help you get through it as I had no one except our Heavenly Father. Without Him I don't know where I would be. Mine and mom's prayer's again are with YOU and Delores. If you need us for anything we are only a phone call away.
