“ Roger, Laura and I are so sorry for your loss .... our loss of course too! Remember I used to ride by on my bike to see Aunt Hazel on the front porch? Well guess what. I still ride by there. Her house, your house, Uncle Ed's house, will always be a special place in my heart and of course, Aunt Hazel will always be in my heart. But every time I ride by now, I can still see her swinging on the porch. I also remember her great breakfasts from many, many years back when I was a brat and we'd surprise her and Uncle Ed with a visit from Charleston. Biscuits, gravy, grits and cantaloupe!!! Well now she is in Heaven fixing Uncle Ed those same breakfasts!!! Will always keep her in my heart and in my memories.
