“ The most precious memory I can recall of Brother Ray and Sister Hazel was the fishing trip we took. Brother Ray and Gary invited Sister Hazel and I to go with them because we were also going out to eat afterwards.

Needless to say, the great “Fishermen” bragged about the ones that got away. I’m sure Brother Ray and Sister Hazel have heard all of Gary’s fish stories by now and I’m sure Brother Ray has told a few of his own. What a blessing it must have been to have your Mother for all these years, but I’m sure your Dad’s face was one of great joy when he saw your Mom coming through the gates. The grief will linger to relieve your heart but heaven is so much sweeter and your Mom and Dad will never part again. Hold on to that precious hope of being reunited one day. There will be no more disease and no more heartbreak in heaven. I’m praying for your family and will continue to pray for strength and peace in the days to come. “The greater the grief, The greater the love we have of our loved one.”
GOD BLESS
