“ Sorry you have lost your mother. She was A wonderful person. I will remember her smiling as she sat at the table at our last reunion. When I asked her what was her father's whole name. Quick as a wink she rattles off his name and birthday. Her memory was still so great. God gave her a good long life. Tonight I would think she is rejoicing with her earthly father and her heavenly father, along with her brothers and sisters, Uncles and Aunts. We will miss her but she in the best place ever. We have the promise that we will meet again, Amen, amen!

I am sorry I will not be able to attend the funeral. Ralph had a stroke last month and is not driving that far at this time. My love and prayer to the family.
