“ Ms Hazel was a kind, wonderful, and sweet christian lady. We were neighbors for over 25 yrs. She ALWAYS looked good and her hair was always in place and pretty! We would watch her home when she went on vacation and my husband would cut her grass. When we'd talk on the phone, Ms Hazel would always end the call saying "I love ya'll". We loved her, too! My the peace of God bring comfort to the family.

“ "Ms. Hazel" was the sweetest lady! I will miss sharing row 4 with her on Sunday mornings at Reedy River! She was such a good Christian, always gracious and kind to everyone, extending the hand of fellowship to visitors to our church, and always smiling. I loved her and will truly miss her shining influence on my life.

We loved Ms. Hazel with all our heart. We were neighbors for over 25 years and she always treated us kindly and had such a positive & pleasant attitude. Ms Hazel looked good EVERY day and always kept her hair pretty! We would look after her house when she would go on vacation & my husband would cut her grass. When we'd talk on the phone, Ms Hazel would always end the conversation saying I love ya'll. I know that we'll see her again one day in heaven, but I miss her! We pray that the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will give the family comfort. She is safe in the arms of the Lord...love you always, Ms Hazel.
