“ Dear Frank and Jay, I have not seen you guys in years but there are some connections that are never left behind or forgotten. Losing a Mother is difficult under any circumstances and I am praying God will provide the strength and peace that you all need. I still remember seeing your Mom come and go to work over on Forest Drive. Will keep you in my prayers. Darlene Crain Estes

Frank and Jay, your mother must have been an amazing person. I never had the opportunity to meet her, but she had to be one special person to have raised two wonderful sons! Thoughts and prayers are with you as you celebrate her homegoing.
