“ Renee,
Everyday, you become more precious to me.
Just when I think you have shown your best ,, you top it with even more Grace, Love, Kindness, Warmth and BEAUTY for Our Lord Jesus and those around you.

And I believe there are times,,,,, that the only Love of Christ, some people see and feel ,, are in YOU and many Christians like you, like Dad and your family in Georgia. I am thankful, far more than any words I know.

First of all, you and Matthew are devoted to Christ, how wonderful, but above everything in my life and my joy, my heart soars to the highest, that Christ chose me to be your mother.

As always, you are my treasure from Christ Jesus and I will never cease to praise Him for ALL that He is to me and for All the blessings He has given us.

Right now, YOUR Dad is smiling and feeling the ALL the Love, YOU have for him and you were NOT allowed to share here on earth, through NO fault of yours. And Dad's pain is over now, Replaced with serenity, the warmth of God and beauty far more than we can imagine.
And WE will see him again soon.

I am going to send family in Georgia an email soon. Their Love and support for you is so precious. It means very much to me and to you, I know it is comforting. I feel it.

Thank You for being my Renee, a child of the King and a wonderful inspiration to SO many,
With all my Love,

Mom
