there are no words to express my sincerest sympathy. I do not know the kind of pain you feel; I feared seeing that pain in your eyes. My heart is broken for you. God feels your pain. Your faith in Jesus will sustain you and He will provide to you that special inter peace when you call on Him. I know Holly was your whole world. You were such good parents. You raised Holly into the beautiful young woman she had become. She will live on through all the beautiful memories you hold most dear. “ Dear Mary and Jerry - I cannot imagine what you are going through at this time - I work on the Greer Memorial Campus and have spoken to Holly many times by phone requesting records - never dawning on me until now that it was the Holly I knew as a little girl - I wish I had known. I can't get you off my mind, and I will always remember the wonderful parents you have always been to this beautiful girl. I'm so very sorry.##imported-begin##Judy Case##imported-end##

“ Holly was such a beautiful young woman, bubbling over with her love of life, a joy to just be around. Our hearts go out to Mary & Jerry and the rest of Holly's family. Through her death, Holly gave many others a chance to live. Words completely fail us at this time...when you can, read Genesis 20:16-18:

"...for she (Hagar) said, "How can I watch the child die?" So she sat some way off, weeping bitterly. God heard the child crying and the angel of God called from heaven to Hagar, "What is the matter? Do not be afraid: God has heard the child crying; get to your feet, lift the child up and hold it in your arms, because I will make of it a great nation". Through Holly's family's generosity, they have made her "a great nation". You are ALL in our prayers...

“ Jerry, Mary and family: I can not begin to express my sadness for Holly's passing. My heart is with you all. We as a family know Holly is in Heaven with Jesus... and I pray He gives to you His comfort in such a way, that you will know within you the reassurance of seeing her again someday. Nothing in this life will replace the void of having her here with you; but knowing that Jesus is now holding her safely in His arms... may it be of comfort to you. I love you all very much, your cousin Tracy.##imported-begin##Tracy Maden Olvera##imported-end##
