“ Howard was, is and always will be the best friend I have ever had. Outside of my immediate family, I have spent more hours of my life with Howard than anyone else in the world. He was there for me at every major turning point and decision of my life after we met in college, both good and bad. He was the best man at my wedding in 2005, attended the assorted Tai Kwon Do tournaments and ceremonies that I participated in, and was one of my biggest supporters in life in general. He encouraged me to write and pursue my dreams. He never turned a blind eye to me and was always there when I needed him the most.

He was my brother, not just my friend. I will miss him for the rest of my life,

Howard was one of the most creative men I ever knew. He always had a quick smile and a witty comment under almost every circumstance. I am glad to have known him when I was still growing up and to have gotten to know him again later in life. I will truly miss him. Rest well, Howard, and God bless.
