“ I had the pleasure of meeting Hoyt at the grocery store where I worked. He was such a sweet and joyful person. I immediately felt a connection to him so I asked him about his life and found out he had served in the army with my late grandfather. It felt like getting to speak with my beloved Pop again. I am so honored to have known Hoyt and get a small glimpse into his life. A true hero and selfless man. He has gone home to his Jesus! May his memory be a treasure.
