“ My Tribute from Sue Moody Gagnon: During the darkest months of my life during 1963 when I became suddenly widowed at 19 years of age and carrying my first child, Kella; my friends Netta Jean and Jack took me into their home and kept me alive. I have never known a couple with such love and compassion that they continued to "raise" me during my recovery from such a loss. As Jack is my brother in Christ; I know that I will be seeing him again. Soon, when I get to spend some time with you, Netta Jean, I will have the opportunity to return the same kind of caring and loving that you provided for me and my unborn child. With all my love, Suzie
