“ We first met Jack in 1994. We had searched for for an area builder who was honest,dependable,and professional. Jack was all those things and more. He built a home for us,that we always refer to as "the house that Jack built" with great pride. Jack,and his son Ron built houses with care and passion.

Today we remember Jack VanDenMeiracker, with great respect. He was a fine man.

To Jack's wife Nell, their children and grandchildren we offer our most sincere sympathy. Tim & Gloria##imported-begin##Tim & Gloria Roberts##imported-end##

“ Ray enjoyed working with Jack at Progressive Builders. Jack taught Ray a lot about the construction field that has stood him in good stead these past years. Ray has stayed in construction and now owns his own cabinet business with our oldest son. Jack taught Ray to be precise, dependable and thorough in his work. Our prayers are with you and your family.##imported-begin##Raburn & Jeanean Beeco##imported-end##

“ Nell, Rudy, Ron and Rob & family:

Jack was a master carpenter and builder who always did top quality work. He built our church and house and they will be standing 100 years from now. Thanks to his generosity and leadership, we have had a fine church building to worship in all these 27 years! He was a good and generous person who will be missed, and thanks to his efforts this world is a better place. John & Bea##imported-begin##John & Bea Heberger##imported-end##
