“ My sincere condolences for the family's loss. In my brief time as NGU's interim president, it was one of my delights to get to know Jacks. NGU surely owes him much, but more importantly he was a man of great character and spiritual commitment. So many of us have been enriched in our relationship with Jacks Tingle.

“ I observed and befriended Jacks over a 40-year period which saw him and his family rise from humble beginnings, enjoy a comfortable life, suffer failure, rise once more to enjoy luxury, and ultimately be stricken with difficulty.

I am happy that Jacks' suffering on this earth has ended to free his spirit.

-And while this tribute is to Jacks, I know that he would trumpet my approbation of Deborah, whose faithfulness, tireless attention, and dogged loyalty allowed Jacks to be the best he could be.

Rest, Jacks. Rest, Deborah.

“ Thinking of you at this time of loss. So many memories of the late 50's at NGJC. Mom was working in the canteen and laundry mat. Dad was Dean of Men and we lived in the dorm for awhile. Robert Blackwell, Joe Bruce, and your group along with my brother, Tommy, was always running around campus playing games. I have lived in Easley since 1969. Retired in 2009 from teaching and coaching at Easley High School. The Family will be in our prayers.

“ I grew up with Jacks in Tigerville. He was one of the "" good ones". We were teenagers during the time of madras plaid shirts and pastel colored socks. He (and others from Tigerville) formed a band in high school. We all thought they were as good as the Beatles! Jacks always had smile and kind word even after he had gone through so much. He will be remembered and missed. Prayers for the family.

Jacks was my nephew. He was a clever business man, but more than that, he was a truly good person. That is about the greatest tribute one can receive in these times. Although I didn't get to see him often, he was always in my thoughts and heart. I will miss him, but I will not forget him.

Deborah, Bill and I will miss Jacks funeral, but you and the family are definitely in our prayers. Jacks was such a kind and giving person. He made a difference in so many lives at North Greenville University. He was a wonderful Christian man and will be missed by so many. May God comfort you and the family during this most difficult time. You certainly did a great job during his declining health. Great job, well done.
