“ Dear Rhonda and Jerry, I was so sorry to hear of Jaime's passing, I can still remember her playing in Alta's yard and singing very loudly, Ricky Skagg's "Honey, Won't you open that door". She was probably 6 years old and I was sitting on the front porch across the street (we used to be neighbors) she sound like she was having fun playing, this was just a fond memory of mine. May God comfort you in this time of sorrow, you are in my thoughts. Pamela Batson Johnson##imported-begin##Pamela Batson Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear Jerry and Rhonda and girls. We were so shocked to hear of Jaime's passing. We were in Greer today and came back to Kingstree tonight when we got the news from Betty Pearson. Please know that we are lifting all of you up in our prayers and believing that God will help you all deal with this tragedy. We do not know what happened but know that God's grace will see you through this time. Much love to our old friends..##imported-begin##Eddie & Phyllis Underwood##imported-end##
