“ James and I go back decades ranging from Eastman Chemicals to the Government Group and Iraq reconstruction. He and I were fellow Hokies in the land of Tigers and Gamecocks..

He was a compassionate individual and extremely competent professional. I admired his ability to organize/manage large program efforts while prioritising family and personal developmental hobbies & activities.

I know you are shocked at his sudden departure. But, I also know you and your family have a treasure chest of fond and love filled memories. You are in my prayers.

“ James was a caring individual. Selfless in his actions and always will to assist. I enjoyed working with James while I was at Fluor from 1988-2006.

He will be missed.

“ I have no words for the sadness I feel for your loss of James. There was a season where we shared life together and I will forever treasure that time. Friday night Eastside football games watching our boys play was something I looked forward to every week and so enjoyed being with you and James. Our times at the lake were James’ display of servant hood was a wonderful example to us and our boys as he tirelessly and cheerfully gave himself to everyone. He loved to have fun and that was contagious to all around him. Thank you James for wonderful memories... we love your family❤️

“ Many are the memories with this family. We were blessed by them while our families worshipped together at LRBC. Much time was spent together as families also—in our homes, going out to eat, etc. We affectionately called him Smoot and loved him dearly. While we rejoice that he is in the presence of our Lord and we will be reunited one day, we hurt for the void the family now feels. We too share in their grief. Love to the entire family.

“ Such a sinking feeling of disbelief and deep sadness for this awesome family. James had a confidence and steadiness about him that I've always admired. Also the best middle name I've ever heard! He was a great example on so many levels. A memory-making man for sure- he had a great laugh.. such a fun storyteller.. taught me how to water ski so patiently! A model of closeness with his son and my friend Jacob. What an impactful legacy in so many ways. Thank you James. We'll see you there!!
