“ Jim was a man of great character he loved Cindy his wife,his two daughters and his grandchildren. He was a patriotic American who served his country with pride and dignity. He also loved his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. There is not enough space here to tell of all his unselfish acts of kindness. I count It a privilege to have called Jim my friend for the last thirty years. Jim you will be greatly missed bye those who knew and loved you. At times like these we can only draw comfort from the Holy scriptures. You are now enjoying that eternal life that Jesus promised his children in John 10: 27- 28 Looking forward to the day that we will meet again. You friend and brother in Christ Jimmy Shipman

“ Cindy, Tonya, and Amber. I am so sorry for the loss of such a great guy! Jim was a very special man to so many. He would always make even a stranger feel like they were family. He will be missed by all who knew him. I love you all and I pray that God will heal the emptiness you feel at this time. I loved him and was always proud to call Jim a part of my family too.
