“ I lived next door to Hamp for years with my children, he always welcomed them into his home , they played with his grandsons. He always treated us like family , if it was supper time and my kids were over there he would always offer them a plate as if they were his . He was a very special and wonderful man. God bless you Hamp , you will be missed , Jenn Laws

“ Missing Daddy ham so bad.. he wasn't just my father in law but my best friend no matter how bad I felt or he felt we would do stuff in garden together or work in yard or just sit on porch and talk and he always made sure I had wood in heater in winter time . He loved his cat. That cat came to see him every morning. And would be right by his feet when he was out side every step.. he loved his adopted grandkids Rachael and elly Cody thrasher the didn't do Wong in his eyes. . Miss you so much love you. . I know his with grandma McCall and Jesus and his enjoying his new life in heaven see you one day soon daddy Hampton enjoy your new wings and fly
