“ Jim, along with his family, was the Camp Manager at Camp Iroquoia in Hallstead, PA for many years during the late 80's through mid 90's. His service and work at camp played a vital part in the ministry, and seeing many people come to camp and hear about Christ. He truly was a great testimony to serving the Lord as he managed Iroquoia. We are praying for strength and comfort for the family at this time.

“ My cousin Jim Weisbecker even when he was not feeling well himself, called me frequently to see how I was doing health wise. I praise the Lord that now he is free from pain and rejoicing in Heaven with Jesus. See you later, Jim. I am praying for your family at this sad time.

“ Golf was everything. I knew Jim through work but personal time was always on the course. He would be a solid witness for Christ when on the course. I don't imagine he ever played with a nonbeliever when he wasn't a personal witness.
