“ Miss Me But Let Me Go. When I come to the end of the road, and the sun as set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little-but not too long, and not with your head bowed low, remember the love that we once shared. Miss me but let me go. For this a journey we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know. Bury your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me but let me go.##imported-begin##Brenda ##imported-end##

“ A Thousand Winds. Do not stand at my grave and weep, for I am not there, I do not sleep. I am a thousands winds that blow, I am a diamond's glint on snow. I am sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle Autumn's rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush. Of quiet birds in cicle flight, I am the stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there, I did not die.##imported-begin##Brenda Maden##imported-end##
