“ As a young family, we lived on Glenn St. Not far from Mt Ararat church. My Dad was a deacon at Ebenezer. Several times he would help out when My Ararat was doing some improvements. We were invited to some of their services and some meals that were held on the grounds. Mrs Janie Cruell always made us feel very welcome. My Dad (James), Mom (Betty), my brother (James Robert) and I always said some of our finest meals were made by Mrs Janie. With much love, Mary Lee (Guest) Thilman
