“Jayden was truly one of the nicest kids I've ever taught. He listened intently, was always polite, and helpful whenever help was needed. He seemed to be a well-adjusted kid with a passion for fun and the good things in life, and he represented his faith with upstanding character. He will be missed.”

“ Jayden was one of the nicest people to me from Travlrs Rest, made me a happier person when I wasn't getting picked on. But on if the best memories I have is when me and Jayden were taking a biology test and couldn't stop laughing because both of us dint know what the answers were so we guessed looked at each other and started laughing unconditionally.

“ Larry, I remember how proud you were when Jayden was born. Your eyes lit up when you told us the news. You were going to be a dad! You were and are a good dad. No words can help ease the heartache you and your family are feeling now. Just know your family is in our prayers. Donald and Deborah Atkins
