“ Dear Uncle Dee and Famiy,

*Our aunt Jeannie was a beautiful woman inside and out. She lived with us for a short period of time in Cincinnati, Ohio before she traveled on to Cleveland, Ohio while furthering her business career. Aunt Jeanne and I shared a bedroom and she would tell me bedtime stories. , I remember how kind she was to me, my brother and sister. She was a good cook and I would insist she make a chocolate pie for me from time to time and she would so so. I remember that she always knew tthe latest dances and was a very good dancer. She loved beautiful clothes and shoes and I suppose she could have been called a "clothes horse" and I followedndirectly in her footsteps We love and miss you Aunt Jeannie, Carolyn Finn Reynolds, Katherine Finn Ruskin and Donald T.
