“ Jennifer and I were best of friends for 30 years. She was always full of life. We worked at SNET in the same group. There were a few of us that hung out together and I wanted to Include her in our "group". She was invited to a get together after work at Archie Moores. She lit the room up with joy. We've been talking texting and calling each other for years. And yes we butt heads, but we always loved each. I'm truly so devastated I want to scream. I honestly can't imagine seeing her ever again. GOD BLESS YOU JENNIFER YOU WILL BE MISSED.

“ Jennifer I'm so upset about your passing. I've cried every day when I heard about you. I'll love you forever but now I'm going to accept this and move on with my life without you and I have the support of my psychiatrist, my family and my friends. The Lord called you and you answered. Love you till my last Breath.

“ Jenn we've been best friends for 30 years. We had alot of fun especially when we worked together at SNET. Sneaking out and finding fun places to drink and entertain anyone wherever we went. It was sad when you went to San Diego but it was awesome to go there for a visit and met Mike for the first time. You were always laughing and enjoying life. We've talked almost every week for so many years it's now empty without hearing your voice. The Lord needed you and you answered his call. I'll miss you forever but I'll never forget the fun. Rest in peace you were gone too soon. Love to you my best friend. ❤️❤️❤️

“ Jenny and I had 30 years of a great friendship. I remember the fun times we had in San Diego. We talked at least 3 times a week and I'm going to miss her voice filled with laughter. I just saw this today and now I know why she didn't call. I'm feeling very emotional and can't stop crying. I'm wondering why Mike didn't reach out to tell me. Happy Heavenly Birthday Jenni I'll forever miss you. ❤️💜
