“ Hi my name is Gena Marshbanks. I am a friend of Jennifer's from school, I live right down the street on Edgemont. I remember coming to her house and playing when we were younger. I never thought something like this would happen to her. She was such a giving person and loved everyone. She was trying to get away and start over, but I guess God needed her more. She does make one beautiful angel and she will always be missed and never forgotten. If there's anything I can do please let me know. I send my prayers and love with you through this time of grieving. Thank you.

“ Jen, I remember all the uplifting talks we had in our VC days. You had such an uplifting soul that could light up a room! & thank you for fixing my hair when Miss B jacked it up!! Lmbo! You will truly be missed! I'm still in shock that this could happen to someone as precious as you! My heart & prayers go out to all of your family & closest friends. May God bring you all some sort of peace during your time of grief. I'm so very sorry. My ddeepest condolences to all of you. Jen, your memory will forever be cherished. I'm blessed to have known you. You will be truly missed! God needed His Angel! RIP sweet girl! Anyone who had the blessing to know you, loves you forever! XOXO

“ The first time I met Jennifer we clicked immediately and have been friends ever since. I was new to Greenville and only had one other friend. Jen was good to me and I was the same with her. I got a chance to meet her lovely family and that how I found out where she got her kind heart and ways from. Also her feisty side from to, LOL. We use to watch tv together or go out to eat at Mexican restaurants and she would order our food in Spanish and they would look so confused we would just crack up from the stares. But I knew she loved me, because when I moved back to Buffalo,ny, she came and stayed with me for a month and that is a month that I will never forget. I know that God has purposes behind all that he does and we should never question him and I won't. Jen if I would have known that Thursday would have been the last time we talked I would have kept you on the phone with me for hours. You always be my little sister and you will forever be apart of my heart.

Love always MARTY
