

Jessie Ellen Smith Carson

September 8, 1938 - June 3, 2011

Jessie Ellen Smith Carson, 72, loving wife and mother, passed away on Friday, June 03, 2011, at her home after an extended battle with Alzheimer's. Born in Pickens County, SC, she was a daughter of the late Jesse Morgan Smith and Daisy Pauline Smith. Mrs. Carson was a 1957 Graduate of Dacusville High School where she was the class Valedictorian; she retired from St. Francis Hospital after 28 years where she was the Benefits Coordinator. She was an avid gardener; she enjoyed building projects and she loved to shop. She was of the Baptist Faith.

Surviving is her husband of 44 years, Charles Allen Carson; a daughter Phyllis Bible and husband Gary; a son Greg Carson and wife Kim; 2 grandchildren, Sissie and Richard and many loving nieces and nephews. In addition to her parents she was predeceased by 3 sisters and 2 brothers. Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in The Howze Mortuary Chapel with visitation from 2 until 3 Sunday at the mortuary prior to the service.

The family would like to thank the Hospice of the Upstate for the care given Mrs. Carson and they would also like to thank everyone who cared for her during her illness.

“ Words can not even begin to express how much Jessie and her family have meant to me over the last 30 years. Jessie has been such a blessing to me. She guided me when I was very young and started working at St. Francis Hospital. She will forever be remembered as the wonderful person that she was. She leaves behind an amazing family who has also touch my life in a special way. Love you all, Kim Evett###imported-begin###KIM EVETT###imported-end##

“ Charles,
We're so sorry about losing Jessie. She was a good backyard neighbor. ready to listen and talk whenever we walked through our African Savannah to get to your Garden of Eden! Please accept our condolences and when you need someone, please walk to our back door. You are always welcome! We are praying for you and Jessie.
