“ Aunt Jewel is one of the sweetest ladies I have ever known (along with her Sisters Aunt Frankie and my Mom, Margaret). She lived her life with courage, humility, and hope when things were hard. Aunt Jewel so loved the Lord and her Husband, Uncle Bobby, her children Joy and Robin, and her grandchildren Seth and Isabelle. I will miss her bright smile and all the goodness she brought to those around her. She is certainly in Heaven sharing the honor of eternity with her Brothers and Sisters, and she deserves a special place by our Lord. We will all miss her so much.

“ Joy and family,
Words cannot convey the sorrow felt by the loss of your mother!
Remember that you all are in our prayers now and in the weeks ahead. Seek God's Word and the Holy Spirit as He will give you peace.

We love you!

“ So sorry for your loss. Joy and Robbie your mama was a precious sweet lady . Bobbie I know you will miss your loving wife. My fondest memories of her when I was a kid was her teaching my Sunday School class at Marietta Revival Center. She was always kind and soft spoken to everyone. She was part of my family for a long time. I know y'all will miss her dearly. Praying God will surround you with his love and peace as you celebrate her home going. Love you all, Curtis and Rachel Branch
